Incidents

On August 2nd, Officer Ruggiero responded to a commercial building for a report of vandalism. The building owner reported that two buttons had been taken off a key pad used to enter the property, and a glass door in the rear of the building had been smashed.

August 8th, a resident reported that her vehicle had been broken into on Grant Street and there was change missing from the ashtray. Please remember to lock your car doors.

While on Patrol the evening of August 12th, Officer Sweeney observed initials that had been tagged on the side of Subway. The initials were not legible, the incident was documented.

On August 16th, Officer Comeau took a report from a local business that a former employee is suspected of stealing $1,200.00 from the business. The matter is under investigation.

Community Outreach

During the month of August, the Maynard Police Department had a collection box for Girls Helping Girls. Mrs. Karlon, a Maynard resident partnered with the Maynard Police Department to collect items needed for female soldiers. We are thrilled to help with such a worthy cause. Thank you to Mrs. Karlon for reaching out to us!

Sergeant Balzotti saw a young Maynard resident practicing on her bicycle without a helmet. Luckily, Sergeant Balzotti had a spare helmet for this young lady so that she could continue practicing on two wheels well protected.

Detective Manchuso and Officer Brennan attended a Special Olympics Golf event at Stow Acres Country Club. These Maynard Police Department Officers were pleased to present the medals to these athletes.

Lt. Noble presented Nichole Karlon, the Honor Flight Pub Crawl organizer, with a donation from the Maynard Police Department Relief Association.

Training

Detective Manchuso attended The Nuts and Bolts of Collaborative Crisis Management on August 23rd.

Detective Manchuso and Officer Ruggiero attended a Tactical Dynamics Counter Ambush Tactics for Female Officers course.

Sergeant Duggan attended monthly NEMLEC SWAT training.
